

Mark Grosset Award

INTERNATIONAL PHOTO SCHOOLS

2018

Since 2007, Promenades Photographiques festival organises the Mark Grosset Award to discover and promote young photographers from international photo schools. Two awards are given on site by a jury composed of leading figures from the image industry; there are two categories: documentary and artistic photography.

Created in 2013, the public choice award is funded by the town of Vendôme. During the whole festival, until September 3rd, the visitors can vote for their favorite work.

the collective exhibition

Inside a symbolic place completely dedicated to photo schools, Les Ecuries Rochambeau, the students exhibit ten to fifteen prints each during the entire festival. A true lab for international photo education, we want this display to be a showcase, a opened window on tomorrow's talents.
